

Walton match is off

THE scheduled Isthmian League game tonight (Tuesday) between Wycombe Wanderers and Walton and Hersham has been called off after Walton's 2-2 draw at home to Dartford in the F.A. Cup, fourth qualifying round on Saturday. Instead Wanderers play a friendly against Athenian League, Division one locals Aylesbury United.

Walton travel to Dartford for the replay on Thursday and although Wycombe tried to find an Isthmian League game they were all fully booked. Secretary Bert Crump then contacted the Premier Midweek Floodlight League but also to no avail as all the clubs in their division have games in midweek.

Aylesbury had earlier written to the Blues requesting a friendly and the game was confirmed at Monday lunch time. Gate prices are likely to go down to 15p.

Wanderers boss Brian Lee will probably use the game as a chance to experiment with his players. John Maskell and John Delaney are unlikely to be fit, giving Kevin O'Brien a chance to play against his former club—he was player manager of Town a few years ago.

One familiar face in the Aylesbury line up will be Bernie Cogan, formerly with Hitchin Town and an England reserve. He is at present leading scorer at Aylesbury with eight goals and is also top of the Division One charts.

United, in fact have been going through quite a good season so far, after a dismal spell last term. They have won six and lost six of their league and cup games and two of the best displays were a 5-3 extra time defeat against Boreham Wood and a draw with Oxford City in the F.A. Cup.
